Dr. Allen Carter is the author of the psycho-spiritual book: "What is This Thing Called I" and is currently the Executive Producer and host of "Who Am I?" A Psycho-Spiritual Perspective airing weekly on the Atlanta Interfaith Broadcasters Network (AIB).

As a psychologist, Dr. Carter has served as President of the Georgia State Board of Examiners of Psychologists and as President of the Georgia Psychological Association. He was elected President of state leaders for the American Psychological Association.

He received his B.A. from Morehouse College and his Ph.D. in Clinical Psychology from Columbia University in New York City. His clinical internship was completed at the University of California School of Medicine in San Francisco, California.

Dr. Bram Boroson is an astrophysicist, currently teaching at Clayton State University as an Associate Professor of Physics in the Department of Physics and Chemistry.

He has done research at the Harvard-Smithsonian Center for Astrophysics, MIT, and the NASA Goddard Space Flight Center. He has served on committees determining who uses the Hubble Space Telescope and Chandra X-ray Telescope.

Bram was one of 40 winners of the Westinghouse Science Talent Search for a paper on "the Boroson Rectangle", an array similar to Pascal's Triangle.

At Oberlin College, his undergraduate majors were math and physics; he won an award for the highest score at Oberlin for the Putnam mathematics exam.

Rev. Richard Burdick is currently serving as the Spiritual Leader at Unity North Atlanta Church and has been involved in ministry for over 34 years.

His career began as the Musical Director for several Methodist and Religious Science churches. During these times he studied metaphysics, Bible interpretation and Interfaith ideology before his ordination as an Interfaith Minister and Licensed Unity Teacher.

Burdick worked with some of the most prominent New Thought speakers including Gary Zukov, Jean Houston, Depak Chopra, Barbara Marx Hubbard, Mary Manin Morrissey and Wayne Dyer.

He is scheduled to receive a second ministerial ordination in March of 2017.

Discover The Meaning of Life and Beyond

Three leaders in their perspective fields of psycho-spiritualism, quantum physics and metaphysics come together for a panel discussion and exploration into the mysteries of human origin and the universe.

Each expert will present theories developed within their field of study on the predictions existence and purpose of mankind within the universe.

Experienced moderators will pose a series of questions to the experts, as well as, allow additional questions from the audience.

It's an opportunity to compare and contrast each field's explanations and rationalizations as they are presented in a thought-provoking discussion and analysis.
